UWRF's Josh Calleja Named Player of the Week

SAINT PAUL, MINN. (January 19, 2010) – The NCHA announced this morning that UW-River Falls' junior forward Josh Calleja (New Richmond, Wis.) is player of the week for his efforts last weekend at St. Scholastica. Calleja notched five points in a win and tie for the Falcons, including two goals in 25 seconds on Saturday night.

On Friday night Calleja assisted on two goals in the opening period as the Falcons jumped out to a 3-0 lead after 20 minutes. In the third period he added his fourth goal of the season, an insurance tally at 17:58. UW-River Falls won its third straight game by a final score of 5-0 over then #5 St. Scholastica.

The rematch was a much different game, and it required some heroics from Calleja. It looked like the Saints would cruise to a 5-3 win, which was the score late in the third period. But the Falcons pulled their goalie and Calleja scored at 19:13 ... and again at 19:38. Both goals were power play goals that helped UW-River Falls swipe a point in game two of the series.

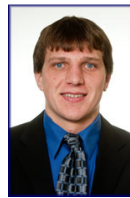

The conference points were the first for UWRF since November 13-14 at UW-Eau Claire. The Falcons had lost four straight NCHA contests.

On the season Calleja has six goals and 14 assists for 20 points. The two multi-point games last weekend give him seven total on the season.
